Campus Updates

Chancellor's Updates

---

New Program to Minimize Biased Based Policing

The University of Tennessee has announced a new program to minimize biased-based policing, which will focus on training and education to address systemic issues.

Corporation for National and Community Service

The Corporation for National and Community Service has released the FY 2022 Senior Corps RSVP Competition guidelines, seeking applications until August 26. The award is $250,000.

TD Bank

The 2020 Ready Challenge by TD Bank is accepting new proposals until August 11 to help organizations harness the power of stories to engage volunteers.

 peanuts4kids

Students learn at home by collecting laptops for students. Their goal is to recondition 300 laptops by August 31.

Sociological Initiatives Foundation

The Sociological Initiatives Foundation has issued a call for proposals on community engagement at the intersections of science, technology, and society.

---

Community Engagement

The International Journal of Research of Service-Learning and Community Engagement is now online. Three Zoom workshops are included in the series starting August 20.

Virtual Wellington Awards

The 2020 Virtual Wellington Awards will feature virtual cooking classes for Wellington students.

---

New Opportunities and Funding

Social Work Office

The Social Work Office at the University of Tennessee is seeking applications for the next edition focusing on Peace and Societal Transformations. This issue will focus on social-emotional learning, anti-racism, and movements that coincided with the COVID-19 pandemic.

TrueRemove

The Office of Campus Event Services has issued new guidance on hosting campus events and visitors.

UT's Football team

The UT's Football team was featured in Sports Illustrated for their support of the Black Lives Matter movement and their work against police brutality.

Community Updates

Pride Center Holds Virtual Pride March

The Pride Center continued its annual celebration of Pride Month via a virtual march, which featured a story-telling project amid closure due to COVID-19.

Oak Ridge Institute at UT

Oak Ridge Institute at UT has been awarded $20 million in research funding.

UT to Distribute Masks to Community

The University of Tennessee has announced plans to distribute masks to the community. This Research Data Center (RDC) will serve as a branch of the Atlanta's Federal Statistical Research Data Center.

New Program to Minimize Biased Based Policing

The University of Tennessee has announced a new program to minimize biased-based policing, which will focus on training and education to address systemic issues.

---

Office of Community Engagement and Outreach

Office of Community Engagement and Outreach, Office of Community Engagement and Outreach is an office that seeks to transform the lives of individuals and the community as a whole. It is an office that seeks to address the urgent needs of the community and to create a more just and equitable society.